

Licentiate in Kinesiology and Physiotherapy
Licentiate in Kinesiology and Physiotherapy – 6 years

Objectives

To train students that will be specialized in: a) Assistance of patients through the use of movement in re-education, exercising, physiotherapy, etc. to achieve their recovery and rehabilitation; b) Assistance of healthy people with aesthetic and sporting ends.

Contents

In the course of studies, students deal with basic and clinic subjects. They are provided with scientific and technological foundations essential for: the assistance and rehabilitation of patients with orthopaedic, neurological, breathing or cardiac affections through specific therapeutic techniques.

Job Opportunities

Graduates can work in assistance organisms, communitarian and rehabilitation centres, with patients derived by a GP as well as in sports organisms for therapeutic practices, sporting and competitive activities. They can also teach at universities and carry out research.