

Licentiate in Obstetrics

Licentiate in Obstetrics – 5 years

Objective

To train students who will intervene in the area of Medical Sciences and health to provide primary assistance and prophylaxis; prepare the delivery through evaluation controls, and psycho physic exercising, and provide assistance during the delivery, birth and puerperium.

Contents

The course of studies is articulated with basic subjects form Medicine, specific subjects that study obstetrics and subjects concerning sexual education and reproductive health.

Job Opportunities

Graduates work in the area of health promotion, prophylaxis and provide assistance to normal deliveries in Hospitals, Health Centres and specialized Institutes. The degree enables graduates to help in the preparation for normal deliveries through evaluation controls from the seventh month of pregnancy, pre-delivery psycho physic exercising and to assist in births and normal puerperiums.